

GOVERNORS REVIEW ATLANTIC FLEET

Present and Former Executives Guests of Daniels on Wyoming

WATCH SHAM ATTACK

Destroyer Flotilla, With a Dash that Thrilled Spectators, Attacks Battleship Line

ARE GUESTS AT LUNCHEON

ON BOARD THE FLAGSHIP WYOMING, off Boston Light, by wireless, Aug. 25.—From the after-deck of the flagship Wyoming, the governors and former governors representing about one-half of the states of the union today had what was for the greater number their first view of a considerable portion of the American navy.

Share in Review of Fleet. As guests of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, they shared in a review of the Atlantic fleet as it moved through Massachusetts bay. The fleet under command of Admiral Fletcher, which has been engaged in maneuvers off Newport for the past two weeks, was ordered to Boston as a part of the program of the governors' conference in the deliberations of which preparedness for national defense had an important part.

The flagship, flying the flag of the secretary of the navy, picked up the party at the Charleston navy yard at noon and moved down the bay a few miles off Boston Light ship where the imposing array of warships had assembled.

Battleships Come Into View. As the Wyoming slowed down, the destroyer flotilla of 25 ships passed in review before her in double column. The destroyers then disappeared preparatory to a sham attack on the battleship fleet, led by the Arkansas, came into view.

The ten dreadnaughts steamed at ten knots speed. As the last of the line came abreast of the Wyoming the Arkansas went column right, heading east and at the same time the Wyoming proceeded east at 15 knots came abreast of the center of the squadron. The Wyoming then maneuvered the line of battleships, gradually working eastward and northward.

While the governors and their guests were absorbed in the maneuvers the destroyer flotilla suddenly reappeared and with a dash that thrilled the spectators, made an attack on the east of the battleship line.

The attack was theoretically countered, upon which the destroyers drew off to the southward, keeping the Wyoming between the battleship squadron and the destroyers.

Later the battleships escorted the Wyoming until Gloucester was approached, when all but the flagship headed eastward and steamed toward the southern drill grounds off the Virginia capes, for target practice.

The Wyoming, after leaving her guests, will rejoin the battleship fleet. The destroyers, after the war game, proceeded to the southern drill grounds.

Entertained at Luncheon. The governors were entertained at luncheon by the ward-room officers of the flagship on the way down the bay and Secretary Daniels lunched with Admiral Fletcher.

Upon arriving at Gloucester, the governors were to attend a tea and reception at the home of Mrs. John Hays Hammond. An Italian festa for the benefit of the families of Italian seafarers in New England which was to have been held on the Hammond estate today, was postponed until tomorrow because early morning weather conditions were unfavorable.

Daniels Tells of His Aim. Boston, Aug. 25.—A navy steadily increased in size and efficiency so that it will be ready to defend the country against attack from any quarter is the aim of Secretary of the Navy Daniels as declared before an adjourned session on board the flagship Wyoming of the North Atlantic fleet in Massachusetts bay.

For two hours the secretary stood on the bridge of the flagship, while Admiral Fletcher put the fleet through intricate maneuvers illustrating attack and defense. Then he joined the governors in the admiral's cabin and told them why he had made them his guests for the afternoon.

"The navy must abide in the hearts of the whole country if it is to be strong and powerful and made great," the secretary said. "It is for the people to say how great it shall be."

"As you go to your homes you will speak the word that will help to determine this question."

"I believe we ought to increase our navy steadily so that in time of emergency the real strong arm of our country will be ready to defend our country if it is attacked from any quarter."

OFFICIAL REPORT SETS RUMORS AT REST

TRUE OBJECTIVE OF ALLIES IN DARDANELLES NOT REACHED

Terms Ground Gained as of Great Value—Allies Confident That Dardanelles Will Be Forced Before Arrival of Unfavorable Weather.

London, Aug. 25.—An official report issued tonight regarding the recent operations in the Gallipoli peninsula, set at rest rumors which have been in circulation for several days crediting the British troops with having either cut off or outflanked the Turkish forces opposed to them. The report states that while the ground gained is of great value the true objective has not been reached.

In the first attacks, early in the month, the Australians and New Zealanders reached the summit of Sari Bahr and Chanaw Bahr, commanding positions on the west coast of the peninsula but through the failure of the new landing party at Suvla Bay to make the progress expected the troops from the dominions were compelled to fall back. Another attack was made last Saturday but on this occasion, having lost the advantage of surprise, the British could not reach the summit and were compelled to retire again. The report admits heavy British losses but adds that those of the Turks must have been heavier.

Confident of Success. Although the British hold a front of twelve miles along the west side of the peninsula and at some points have penetrated a considerable distance into the interior, the Turks are making a very stubborn defense of their positions but the allies have confidence that with the strong forces at their command and the assistance of the fleet the Dardanelles will be forced before the arrival of the unfavorable weather which is due towards the end of September.

Weather conditions also are playing a part in the operations on the eastern front. It is reported that as the result of continued rains the Germans are finding it more difficult to move forward their artillery. They still are trying, however, to force back the Russians who are holding the line between the rivers AA and Dvina and claim to have been successful at one point at least.

Eichhorn Advancing Eastward. General Eichhorn, who captured Kovno, is advancing eastward, according to Berlin, while progress is reported by each of the five armies which are marching on Brest-Litovsk. One of these armies—that on the southwest front—is said to have broken through one of the advanced positions of the fortress. General Eichhorn's plan apparently is to march rapidly on Vilna and after occupying that town to attempt an advance to Minsk, thus placing his army on the Russian line of retreat from the Bug while Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria continue their efforts to envelop Brest-Litovsk.

As Grand Duke Nicholas still has several lines of retreat open to him and his rear guards heretofore have shown their ability to hold off the Austro-Germans until their retirement was effected, military writers here do not believe this plan will succeed. The only event of importance reported from the Western front is the recapture by the Germans of a portion of a trench they lost to the French in the Vosges. Elsewhere it has been only a repetition of artillery, hand Grenades and mine fighting.

Heavy fighting continues on the Austro-Italian front and the Italians claim to have captured the head of the Stimo Valley in the Tonzone zone.

TO MOVE INSANE PATIENTS FROM KANKAKEE TO JACKSONVILLE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 25.—One hundred and fifty insane patients will be moved tomorrow from the Kankakee State hospital to the Jacksonville State hospital. Special cars will be provided and the party will be guarded by a dozen or more attendants. According to Frank D. Whipp, Secy. of the state board of administration lack of accommodations at the Kankakee asylum made the move necessary. Many of the patients to be moved are of the type classed as violent. The party will travel over the Illinois Central railroad to Springfield and over the Wabash railroad from Springfield to Jacksonville.

BROODS OVER FRANK LYNCHING: BECOMES INSANE

Frank J. Phillips, said to have become insane through brooding over the lynching of Leo M. Frank, was sent to the asylum today. Phillips formerly resided at Des Moines, where he was connected with the Highland Park college.

LEVEE NEAR POSEY BREAKS.

East St. Louis, Ill., Aug. 25.—A report reached here tonight from Centrailla, Ill., that the levee in the Santa Fe bottoms near Posey, Ill., had broken and that three thousand acres of farm land were inundated. The Kaskaskia river at New Athens tonight was five feet above the danger mark and still is rising. A mile west of New Athens the Illinois Central tracks were covered by nine inches of water.

EXTENDS TIME FOR ACTION ON TREATY

Haitiens Protest Vigorously on Time Limit First Set By Charge

EXPLAINS U. S. PURPOSE

Lansing States Washington Government is Acting from Wholly Disinterested Motives

DOES NOT DISCUSS TREATY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Word came from Port Au Prince today that Charge Davis, of the American legation, had extended until tomorrow night the time for action by the Haitian parliament on the proposed treaty to establish for ten years an American financial protectorate over the island republic.

Haitiens Protested Vigorously. Noon today had been fixed as the time by which the Charge would expect approval of the treaty draft submitted by the United States. The Haitians protested vigorously however, against such a limit on debate in parliament and the extension was granted.

Officials here did not comment on press reports that the parliament and ministry threatened to resign if the American government insisted upon immediate action.

Secretary Lansing made a statement today explaining the purpose of the United States in proposing and pressing the treaty with Haiti at this time. He said the Washington government was acting from wholly disinterested motives to save the little republic from ruin through never-ending activities of so-called revolutionists for whom the country's revenues offered spoils.

The secretary said there was no foundation for reports that the proposed convention would give the United States Mole St. Nicholas as a naval base.

Does Not Discuss Treaty. While Mr. Lansing would not discuss the treaty it is known that it provides for American agents in charge of the ten customs houses, three of which, those at Port Au Prince, Cape Haitien and St. Marc, already have been taken over by Rear-Admiral Caperton.

Solon Menos, the Haitian minister, conferred with Mr. Lansing during the day and presented a communication from his government requesting an explanation of certain points in the American proposals.

Although the minister would not discuss the negotiations he said he felt sure that his government was anxious to bring about an understanding with the United States as speedily as possible.

He made it clear that his government did not oppose the attempt of the United States to bring about peace and reconstruction in the island.

Riots and uprisings, he explained, were in many cases due to ignorance of the intentions of the United States and a misunderstanding of the presence of American troops on Haitian soil.

FEDERAL COURT OF APPEALS GRANTS FREEMAN NEW TRIAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Albert Freeman, of this city, who with his associates, Julian Hawthorne, the son of Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Dr. William J. Morton, son of the discoverer of Ether, was found guilty in the federal court here March, 1913, of using the mails to defraud investors in the so-called Hawthorne mining promotions, is to be given a new trial. The federal circuit court of appeals in so deciding today reversed the judgment of the lower court. Hawthorne and Morton served a year and a day in the federal prison at Atlanta. Freeman was sentenced to serve five years. He was the only one of the three to seek an appeal and has been at liberty under bond.

GRANT FINAL DECREE.

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Edith Spreckels was granted final decree of divorce from John D. Spreckels, Jr., here today. Grievous mental suffering was alleged as having been caused by the defendant whose family is among the most widely known in the west. A cablegram saying the decree had been signed was cabled to Honolulu where Frank W. Wakefield, of San Francisco, yesterday obtained a license to wed Mrs. Spreckels.

The Indians finally destroyed the house with bombs. The Indians drove off 560 head of cattle.

CHANCELLOR GIVES GERMANY'S POSITION

SAYS CIRCUMSTANCES OF ARABIC'S SINKING NOT YET CLEARED UP

Asserts Germany Will Give Full Satisfaction to U. S. of Commander of a Submarine Exceeded His Instructions in Sinking Ship.

Berlin, Aug. 25, via London, Aug. 26.—If the commander of a German submarine exceeded his instructions in sinking the Seamer Arabic the German government will give full satisfaction to the United States, Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg informed The Associated Press correspondent in an interview this evening.

The imperial chancellor made the following statement of Germany's position on the sinking of the Arabic:

"As long as the circumstances surrounding the sinking of the Arabic have not been fully cleared up it is impossible for me to make a definite statement. Thus far we have received no report about it. Now we do not even know whether the sinking of the ship was caused by a mine or by a torpedo fired from a German submarine, nor do we know whether in this latter case the Arabic herself may not by her actions perhaps have justified proceedings of the commander of the submarine."

"Only after all these circumstances have been cleared up will it be possible to say whether the commander of one of our submarines went beyond his instructions, in which case the imperial government would not hesitate to give such complete satisfaction to the United States as would conform to the friendly relations existing between the two governments."

Proceeds to Collect Testimony.

Washington, Aug. 25.—In a receptive attitude towards any explanation or statement which the German government may wish to offer concerning the sinking of the Arabic, the state department is proceeding with the collection of all the testimony which it is possible to obtain from the ship's survivors. Half a dozen affidavits already have been received in the form of synopsis, all tending to show that the liner was torpedoed without warning and that she was making no attempt to escape or to attack the submarine.

Special attention has been given the statement by the captain of the Arabic that his ship when attacked was at least two miles distant from the steamer Dunsley, which already had been torpedoed. This was regarded by officials as important because of its bearing upon suggestions that a torpedo directed at the Dunsley might have struck the Arabic.

Some of the first statements said that the Arabic was steaming to the assistance of the Dunsley and gave rise to speculation as to whether the German submarine commander might contend he feared an attempt was being made to ram him.

Secretary Lansing declined to state today whether he would invite Count Bernstorff to confer with him.

Leaves for Washington. New York, Aug. 25.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, left here late tonight for Washington, without however making any announcement to his plans upon reaching the capital.

CHARGE GERMAN WITH MAKING PICTURES OF FORTIFICATIONS

Gustav Kopsch Is Arrested in Washington and Held in $5,000 Bail—Will Be Sent to Norfolk for Trial.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Gustav Kopsch, a young German employed as an instrument maker by the Carnegie Institution here, was arrested tonight by agents of the department of justice, charged with violating the federal law for protection of the National defenses by making pictures of military fortifications. He was held in $5,000 bail and will be sent to Norfolk for trial in the United States district court there.

According to the officers, Kopsch had in his possession photographs of the fortifications and guns at Fortress Monroe and of the reservation at Cape Henry, Va., where the government is planning extensive works to defend the entrance to Chesapeake Bay.

When arrested the prisoner offered no explanation of his purpose in making the photographs.

Kopsch is 27 years old and has been in the United States two or three years. According to the government's information he served in the German army and at the outbreak of the war reported to the German consular at Baltimore to return home for duty. His services were not accepted, it is said, because there was no way of getting reserves to Germany.

GEO. ZEPPENFELD ALIVE IN DECATUR

Youth's Supposed Body Was Buried in Jacksonville July First

MEETS COUSIN ON STREET

Readily Admits Identity—Had No Knowledge of Supposed Death and Burial

TO COME HERE THURSDAY

DECATUR, Ill., Aug. 25.—George Phillip Zeppenfeld, aged 18 years, met his cousin, Miss Alpha Davis, on the street here tonight, although supposed to have been buried in Jacksonville, July 1.

Zeppenfeld left Rockford, June 10, for Milwaukee. On June 29, a man was shot or committed suicide in Rockford who was identified through an electrician's card he carried in his pocket as Zeppenfeld. Henry W. Zeppenfeld, his father, formerly of Jacksonville, who now lives in St. Charles, went to Rockford, accepted the identification and took the body back with him to be buried.

When the boy's cousin first saw him she did not believe her own eyes and passed by. An hour later, worrying over the possibility she started out to look for him, meeting him in front of a picture show. Zeppenfeld readily admitted his identity, but had no knowledge of his supposed death and burial. He said that after leaving Rockford he went to Milwaukee, and through Minnesota, taking a trip west.

Zeppenfeld is a motion picture machine operator and formerly worked in Decatur hotels as a bell boy. He left here in March, going first to Peoria, then to Rockford. He will go to Jacksonville Thursday morning to visit relatives.

The above despatch was received last night over the Journal's leased Associated Press wire. George P. Zeppenfeld was supposed to have committed suicide in the Northwest passenger station at Rockford the latter part of June. The body of a youth of Zeppenfeld's age, with all marks of identification removed from it, was found in the station there, and a few days later was identified as that of Zeppenfeld. Relatives of the young man were notified and Henry W. Zeppenfeld, his father, who resides in St. Charles, went to Rockford, identified the body and brought it to Jacksonville for burial.

The remains were taken to the Reynolds undertaking establishment, where they were again identified by Fred Zeppenfeld, an uncle of the lad, and then removed to the residence at 1345 South East street, where funeral services were held on the afternoon of Thursday, July 1, in charge of Rev. J. M. Lankton, rector of Trinity church. Interment was made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

When asked regarding the case early this morning, John M. Carroll, assistant to Mr. Reynolds, stated that the boy had laid in a morgue in Rockford for some time without attention, and this made the identification difficult. It is understood that the insurance policy on the young man's life was paid just a few days ago.

ORDER SOLDIERS TO REPORT IMMEDIATELY

ARE HURRIEDLY RECALLED FROM LEAVES OF ABSENCE IN EL PASO

Troops Are Ordered to Report at Ft. Bliss Following Rumor That Large Body of Mexicans Were Preparing to Cross Border.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 25.—Following the rumor that a large body of Mexicans were preparing to cross the border, all members of the sixth and sixteenth infantry were hurriedly recalled from temporary leaves of absence in the city tonight and were ordered to report immediately at Fort Bliss. A special guard was stationed at the city police station.

General John J. Pershing, commanding the eighth infantry brigade, went into conference at a local hotel with representatives of the department of justice shortly after the general alarm was sent out. After a conference General Pershing said:

"A man came to us with a story of an uprising tonight of Mexicans of the Huerta and Carranza, and 'Colorado' factions, operating under the title of nationalists. Later he seemed to have substantiated his story. I have ordered the troops to their camps as a precautionary measure, not caring to take a chance. I have stationed men at the bridges and the viaduct and along the river."

In connection with the military preparations it was learned that notification had been given the city and county authorities with the result that the police have taken extra precautions. Up to a late hour soldiers were being hurried to their camps in automobiles.

Armed Mexicans On Border.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 25.—Alarm has been caused among ranchers and small border settlements of Hidalgo county by the appearance of 150 well armed Mexicans on the border opposite the village of Lomita four miles south of Mission, where they have established the camp on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande.

IDENTIFIES PHOTOGRAPH OF MAN AS ONE WHO ROBBED HER

Mrs. Helen Hause Is Arrested in Connection With Robbery of Jewels Valued at $22,000.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Miss Beatrice Allen today identified a photograph of "John Volker," said to be an ex-convict, as one of the men who recently robbed her in her apartment here of jewels valued at $22,000. Mrs. Helen Hause, who said she was the wife of Russell Hause, chauffeur for a millionaire named Joseph, of Elmhurst, N. J., was taken into custody here today in connection with the case.

"I met Volker five weeks ago and he persuaded me to come to Chicago with him," related Mrs. Hause. "He went to Crown Point and was arrested and pleaded guilty to a charge of robbing a jewelry store in that city. The first I knew of it was when he told me of it."

Mrs. Hause then returned to Chicago where her display of jewelry is said to have led to her arrest. While in Chicago together Volker and Mrs. Hause lived at a fashionable south side hotel where Mrs. Hause attracted attention as an expert swimmer.

Mrs. Allen said she recognized Mrs. Hause as one whom she had often seen on the hotel beach. Search of Mrs. Hause's trunk will be made.

BELIEVE STEAMER WAS SUNK OFF NORTHERN COAST OF CUBA

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 25.—Officials of the United Fruit company stated here today that they virtually had given up hope that their steamer Marowine, with 28 passengers and crew of 68, escaped foundering in the tropical storm. They believe the Marowine was sunk off the northern coast of Cuba.

The liner left Belize, British Honduras, Friday, August 13th, and evidently encountered the hurricane a week ago last Saturday. Vessels of the navy and of the United Fruit company still are searching for her. The Marowine's passenger list included Commander Jonas H. Holdren, U. S. N.; Rev. John C. Cooney and Edward N. Tobey, a scientist of St. Louis; Arturo Belgrano of the Argentine diplomatic corps and Mrs. Bessie Jones, daughter of American Minister Ewing at Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

FIND MINISTER'S BODY NEAR HOME

Tolleston, Ind., Preacher Is Shot and Body Left in Nearby Lot

ANTICIPATED ATTACK

Pastor Had Requested that He Be Permitted to Carry A Revolver

ENDEAVOR TO FIND MOTIVE

GARY, Ind., Aug. 25.—Federal and state authorities tonight were endeavoring to establish a motive for the murder of Rev. Edmund Kayser, pastor of St. James' Evangelical Lutheran church of Tolleston, Ind., a suburb of Gary, who was shot and killed in his home late last night by several persons who wound his body with cord and left it in a nearby lot.

Postmaster Advances Theory. One theory, advanced by H. B. Snyder, postmaster of Tolleston, was that the preacher's tragic end was the culmination of a series of anonymous letters which he had received warning him to cease his attentions to a married woman in Gary.

"Several months ago Mr. Kayser turned over to me a batch of threatening letters," said Postmaster Snyder. "He asked that the federal authorities find the author of these letters, which warned him to cease his attentions to a Gary woman. As a result John Hunter of South Bend, postal inspector of Northern Indiana, went to work on the case. He questioned the woman, who denied having any relations with the pastor."

Orders Woman Be Questioned. As a result of the postmaster's statement, Chief of Police Heinz has ordered that the Gary woman be questioned by the authorities. The police tonight also were looking for another woman and a man with residence in the vicinity of Kayser's home. Less credence apparently is given by officials to the belief that Kayser was killed because of his pro-Germanism and his private and public utterances favoring Germanic pretensions in the war.

Kayser was shot in the chest as he sat in his library by persons on the outside standing in the dark. When he staggered to the doorway to grapple with his assailants, he was shot again, this time the bullet entering the jugular vein and ultimately causing his death from loss of blood according to the coroner.

Dead for More Than Hour. Kayser, dying was dragged forty feet away from the light of the windows of his home and tied with window cords about the wrists and ankles. He had been dead for more than an hour when his body was discovered by a passerby.

The local police are firm in their belief that the murder was committed by several persons and intimate that among them were members of Kayser's own congregation.

They point to the persistent rumors of friction in Kayser's church and the alleged threats against the pastor preceding his death.

That Kayser anticipated an attack upon his life was evidenced by his request made to Chief of Police Heinz a month ago that he be permitted to carry a revolver. The request was refused.

Little or no surprise attended the finding of the coroner's jury which declared that Leo Frank was hanged by persons unknown to the jury. No witness was found who was able or willing to shed any light on the identity of the mob of twenty-five directly responsible for the hanging of Frank. This result, along with the other attendant facts of the Frank lynching, indicate that a conclusion made the act possible. The finding indicates, too, that there is quite a wide-spread feeling in Georgia, as previously expressed in some quarters, that the mob merely carried into execution the finding made by the jury that heard the case when Frank was tried.

The Underlying Meaning.

The automobile parade yesterday was a credit to the chautauqua management and more particularly to the efficient committee which had the work in charge. Many of the decorated cars represented a vast amount of labor on the part of the owners, in addition to the considerable expense involved. While there were a good many cars in the parade, there were five or ten times as many automobile drivers lining the streets as spectators. The most significant fact about the whole display, was the growing influence for good roads. Every owner of an automobile, whether he is a resident of the city or the county, is directly interested in the good roads movement and is willing to give aid. The parade, therefore, was a very appropriate feature of good roads day at the chautauqua, and the exhibit of the large number of cars used in this county fit in very appropriately with the arguments advanced by the speakers for highway betterment.

The Franchise Situation.

The argument presented on behalf of the street railway company at the hearing on their objections to the proposed improvement of South Main street presents many interesting phases. Evidently the company maintains that it has certain franchise rights in the street but objects to the city assessing its property after the city has maintained that no such franchise right exists. It will be remembered more-over that a year or two ago the company made application for a street railway franchise and the matter was submitted to a vote of the people and defeated. That action on the part of the company might be considered as an acknowledgement that they had no railway franchise.

While this is true, it must be admitted that the company, if unable to pay for the proposed improvement and the attendant expenses from its earnings, and further is in such position that it cannot borrow money, is in somewhat of a predicament. The situation is but further evidence that the franchise questions have been too long delayed and that long since the city should have granted the company a franchise founded upon reasonable terms and that the company should be willing to accept such a franchise.

Demand Reform in Law Practice

At the chautauqua recently Dr. Spurgeon in his address had occasion to comment upon the many delays attendant upon court trials in this country. Senator Kenyon, who is to make an address one day this week, has been laying great stress upon this very point in a series of speeches he has been making. He presents an array of comparative facts to show that the United States is very negligent in this regard. In the New York constitutional convention recently Elihu Root, who is the chairman of the body, took the floor to argue for a clause which will result in the simplification of the methods of court procedure and in reducing the law's delays and the cost of justice to litigants.

Lawyers themselves have sometimes been charged with being largely responsible for the growth of this system and it has been alleged that they have followed this course simply as a matter of profit. Whatever the cause, there is undoubtedly a constantly growing sentiment on the part of the people for reform and the favorable action taken by the New York convention will no doubt have its effect in other states and give a general impetus to the much needed country-wide reform on this matter.

The People Want Peace.

The message delivered to President Wilson by Count Von Bernstorff indicating that the German government desires delay before any demand is made by the U. S. with reference to the sinking of the Arabic, has had the result of at least delaying any crisis in the affairs of Germany and the U. S. which might have been impending. The request accompanied as it is by a statement that there was no intention on the part of Germany to disregard previous demands made by the U. S. indicates further that there will be no break in the relations between the two countries.

Washington officials feel confident that a subsequent statement from Germany will not only explain the sinking of the White Star liner satisfactorily but will have a tendency to bring the two governments to a clearer understanding. It is therefore not improbable that this late incident which threatened to seriously disturb the relations between the two countries may result beneficially. While the sentiment of the people of the United States is strong for the support of President Wilson in whatever stand he may take in the defense of American honor, there is no question but that the sentiment acknowledged weeks ago as well grounded in opposition to the United States entering the European conflict, has gained steadily in strength.

The average American today has no chip on his shoulder. He has read so much of the horror of the European war that he is firmly convinced that an awful step it would be for the United States to take an active part in that conflict. So in this state of mind there is a disposition on the part of the people to wait for explanations of any action which on its surface may have the indication of overt unfriendliness. President Wilson it is said is convinced of this wide-spread sentiment in the United States and the people can, therefore, be assured that nothing will be done at Washington to disturb existing relations between the two countries only after there has been an affront which our national honor cannot possibly countenance and which cannot be explained away.

ASK FOR DETAILED REPORT ON FOOD SITUATION IN MEXICO CITY

Carranza Agents in Washington Request Information From General Gonzales.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 25.—Carranza agents in Washington have asked General Gonzales, military commander at Mexico City for a detailed report on the food and health situation in the capital.

Recent dispatches from Mexico City quoted American Red Cross agents as saying there were daily many deaths from starvation. This statement aroused the Carranza authorities who claim to have made every possible effort to relieve distress. General Gonzales' report is expected tomorrow.

No change in the political situation in Mexico was reported today and state department officials continue to await General Carranza's reply to the Pan-American appeal for a peace conference. This is expected to reach here at anytime by Carranza's Washington representatives.

Official news of reported fighting at Monterey is lacking, as communicated with Monterey and vicinity has been cut off for several days.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY TO TAKING PART IN NIGHT RIDING OUTRAGES

More Than Three Score Are Placed on Trial in Circuit Court at Hartford, Ky.

Hartford, Ky., Aug. 25.—The long struggle of the authorities with lawlessness in this portion of western Kentucky culminated in the Ohio county circuit court here today when a group of a total of more than three score persons were placed on trial for alleged participation in night riding outrages. When court adjourned for the day two men had pleaded guilty, nine others were on trial and fifty-three were awaiting a hearing.

The two men who threw themselves upon the mercy of the court were sentenced to three years each in the penitentiary for flogging a man and a woman. One of the defendants is the son-in-law of the prosecuting witnesses.

The nine men on trial were indicted with them. Charges against the remainder alleged maltreatment of various persons and the murder of a negro.

Scores of persons in Ohio and contiguous counties have been flogged at night and their homes riddled with bullets within the last ten months by bands of mounted men. Whites and negroes alike have suffered.

SWAN AUTO WINS FIRST IN CONTEST

AUTO PARADE BIG FEATURE OF CHAUTAUQUA WEDNESDAY

Long Line of Decorated Cars Makes Splendid Showing and Keen Competition Exhibited Among the Leaders for Prizes—Winners Announced at Chautauqua Tent.

Considerable interest was manifested in the automobile parade, which was a feature of Wednesday's chautauqua program. Aside from winning sweepstakes, the Buick automobile of Howard Zahn, decorated by William Benson and representing a swan won first place in Class C. The first number drawn of a prize of $10 in gold went to C. W. Cully.

It was shortly after 1 o'clock before the line of march was formed at the intersection of West College avenue and Park street. Jeffries band had been divided into two divisions, one of which led the procession. The line of march extended as far as Centenary M. E. church, where the counter march was made. The judges viewed the cars both in going and returning. As the machines passed a certain point they were given numbers, duplicates of which were put in a box and drawn out on the chautauqua platform, where all the prize winners were announced.

Judges of Winners.

The judges of the day included Lloyd Reid, Frank Plouer, Carl S. Hillerby, Harold Johnson, A. L. Hood, E. A. Hearn, Mrs. Thomas Worthington, Mrs. F. J. Heintz and Miss Anna Bronson.

The swan car was certainly a beauty and made a big hit with the hundreds who viewed the parade. A great amount of skill had been bestowed on the work. The decorations of the swan were white poppies and yellow water lilies. Naturally William Benson felt very complimentary that his work took the first prize in Class C. and the sweepstakes, thus carrying away $75 in prize money. The car was driven by William Ricks. Benson drove from sight. Miss Zella Benson drove the car. The Myers Bros. car representing a wind mill, was thought to be a strong competitor for first honors. It was indeed a magnificent piece of work. A car which attracted unusual attention was that of J. A. Obermeyer, which represented a large boat and was decorated with real sunflowers. The bottom of the boat was so constructed that it appeared to be riding the waves when in motion. The idea was quite original. If a prize had been offered for the National it certainly would have taken it. Especial mention should also be made of the P. R. Briggs Buick car. It was decorated by the Opportunity Bible class of Grace M. E. church. The colors were green, yellow and white and represented a boat scene. W. S. Ehnie found favor with the judges in his handsomely decorated White car, the prize being opened to private owners in Jacksonville precinct. The Ford Sedan made a very handsome appearance.

Miss Cowdin's car with oak foliage and wisteria decorations was very attractive.

A. R. Myrick had constructed a miniature battleship named "Illinois," about his motorcycle with all the armament and other paraphernalia of a ship. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frost represented Indians, being dressed as such. Trailing back of their machine was a tepee.

T. H. Buckthorpe and John Cain acted as marshals of the parade and others lent their assistance in making the event a success.

The following were prize winners and the cars in line aside from some mentioned above.

Class A, open to private owners living in Jacksonville precinct, a prize of $25 was won by W. S. Ehnie's White. Second prize, a Klaxon horn, by David Estaque, was won by C. N. Priest's Ford.

In Class B, open to cars registered by private owners living outside of Jacksonville precinct, first prize of $25 was won by Miss Mabel Cowdin of Chapin, with a Hupmobile, and second prize, a pair of weed tire chains by Brainer & Jensen, was won by F. E. Eastman of Petersburg, a Buick.

In Class C, open to decorated cars registered by a business house or organization, first prize of $25 was won by Zahn's Buick. Second prize, five gallons of Polarine oil by the Standard Oil company, was won by Myers Bros. with a Mitchell.

In Class D, open to motorcycles, first prize of $5 was won by E. R. Frost.

Special Prize Winners.

The following were winners of special prizes:

Best decorated Buick—Benson's Buick, swan decorated, prize, Goodrich casing by Zahn's garage.

Best decorated electric—Dr. C. E. Cole, prize, $15, electric fan by Jacksonville Railway & Light Co.

Best decorated Ford—C. N. Priest, prize, Miller casing by C. N. Priest.

Best decorated Hudson—R. T. Cassell, prize, nickel plated bumper by R. T. Cassell.

Best decorated Hupmobile—Miss Mabel Cowdin, prize, auto searchlight by Newman's garage.

Best decorated Mitchell—Myers Bros., prize, Stewart auto horn by Wolke's garage.

Best decorated Reo—C. S. Black, prize, five gallons French auto oil by Steinberg-Skinner Auto Co.

Best decorated White or Empire cars—W. S. Ehnie, prize, Klaxon horn by L. L. O'Donnell.

Best decorated Cadillac, Roy Goodrick, prize, a search light by S. W. Babh.

APPEARS REPEATEDLY IN ARGUMENT OVER PAVEMENT ASSESSMENT.

Railway Company Indicates It Cannot Borrow Money or Pay for Proposed Improvements from Earnings—Judge Martin Overrules All Objections Except as to Amount of the Assessment—Further Hearing Today.

A hearing on objections to the proposed paving of South Main street from Morton avenue to Michigan avenue was had in the county court Wednesday. Judge Charles A. E. Martin of Cass county presided as Judge W. E. Thomson is owner of property in South Jacksonville. The only objections to the proposed improvement were presented by the Jacksonville Railway & Light company. The objections were represented in court by Walter Bellatti and Paul D. Moriarty, and the city was represented by City Attorney John J. Reeve and Hugh Green. Among the witnesses examined were Walter B. Rogers, who spread the assessment on the street, Circuit Clerk E. D. Pyatt, William N. Hairgrove, J. J. Newell, auditor of the street railway company.

Work Can Proceed.

The hearing occupied all of the morning and the greater part of the afternoon and Judge Martin overruled the objections except as to the amount of assessment. By agreement the court without a jury will hear arguments today as to the benefit of the proposed paving to the Railway Company. If this finding is not satisfactory to the objectors, then an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

This appeal would not act as an estoppel to the improvement but the city can proceed to have pavement laid and judgment taken against the railroad for the pavement. If the case is appealed and the judgment of the lower court sustained, then the company will be compelled to pay the benefits assessed against it, and if the finding in the higher court sustains the company, the cost of that portion of the improvement assessed as against the company would be paid by the city.

The formal objections, ten in number, as indicated in the Journal yesterday, were read by Mr. Bellatti and subsequently were amplified to the extent of maintaining certain errors in specifications. It was maintained that the ordinance, for example, did not indicate that man holes were to be lined with brick or what kind of brick were to be used and other objections of the same class, claiming certain omissions were made.

The most argument centered about the franchise question. The objectors urged that since the city is maintaining that the company has no franchise or rights upon South Main street, that it has no basis for making an assessment against the company which is not against the rails and ties and therefore must be against the company's right of way.

Refer to Old Suits.

In support of the contention that the city is claiming that the company has no franchise and no right of way on the street, the attorneys for objectors presented records to show that certain suits were filed by William N. Hairgrove, the city attorney, in 1913, whereby the city sought to oust the railway company from the use of the streets, claiming that the corporation had no right to use the streets. To the introduction of this testimony City Attorney Reeve made objection in each case on the ground that such evidence was entirely unnecessary and irrelevant. He declared that the admission of this evidence and other contentions made by the attorneys for the objectors would make it necessary for the court to pass upon the franchise question and that such question could not properly come before the court. Judge Martin sustained the city's contention in this matter, and questions relating to suits filed by the city were overruled.

When the objectors argued that the special commissioner who spread the assessment had no basis for making an assessment against the railway company property, the city attorney contended that the fact that the commissioner found the railway company using the street was a sufficient basis for his action in assuming that the company had right of way on the street. This also was the view of the court. In the course of the case when the record was read to indicate that certain suits filed against the railway company are still on the docket of the circuit court, City Attorney Reeve stated that as city attorney he was ready to state that the present city officials have no intention of pressing the suits and that there is the further intention of having them taken from the docket at the next term of court. Mr. Bellatti then asked if the city attorney would be willing to acknowledge the rights of the company to the right of way for a period equal to the life of the proposed improvement. Mr. Reeve said that he of course could not make any such statement.

Figures on Earnings.

The attorneys for the company stated that the earnings from the railway property were not sufficient to pay operating expenses, interest for investment charges, and depreciation. They stated further that since the city contended that they had no franchise rights and that no franchise had been granted, that they were thus not in a position to secure funds from the bond holders to pay for the proposed improvements and the other expenses incident thereto,

MINISTERS PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE

PLAN FOR SPRINGFIELD MEETING NEXT MONTH.

Review of Expected Work by Rev. C. R. Morrison—District Consolidation Likely as Economy Measure.

(By C. R. Morrison)

The publication of the program for the coming session of the Lay and Ministerial Conference of Methodism, awakens an interest in work of the past year, as well as an interest in the work for the new year.

The Big Thing of the Year.

The fourth year in the Educational Forward movement registers the completion of the plan for the Illinois Wesleyan University, in its endeavor to reach a fund of $500,000 for its endowment. All the other schools and colleges report progress—the co-operative spirit was seen in the concentration of energy, first for the Illinois Woman's College and then during this past year all effort was mainly devoted to the cause of the Wesleyan. For the next nine months plans will be put into operation to complete the campaign for the Woman's College at Jacksonville. Considering the crop conditions for the previous two years and the disturbed condition of the country on account of the great war, the progress has been remarkable in the effort to secure these college endowments. One more year remains of the Forward Movement, and it is confidently expected that the full sum of twelve hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be secured for the schools of this, and Central Illinois Methodism.

Ministerial Relief Endowment.

Rev. Robert Stephens, the field secretary for the Preachers' Aid Society, has been somewhat handicapped for a permanent fund for ministerial relief, on account of the educational campaigns and on account of illness.

New churches are rapidly approaching completion at Kenney, Waynesville, St. Joseph, Arthur and Concord, besides the recently dedicated $12,000 church at East Lynn, E. L. Tobie, pastor.

A $14,000 enlargement and parsonage edifice marks progress for Casey where Rev. W. H. McPherson is pastor. The debt of $10,000 that encumbered the fine $40,000 church at Marshall has been lifted. Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer, pastor. Many other evidences of material prosperity will mark the year.

Coming Changes.

The matter of reducing the number of districts from eight to six, is under consideration. This is wholly in the hands of Bishop McDowell, and was discussed by him and the cabinet last year at Shelbyville. Since then a committee of these district superintendents has been commissioned to outline plans for its consummation. These plans are tentatively complete. They are said to so divide the conference that without impairing the work, will secure a reduction of claim for district superintendency, fully $6000, or at least one-fourth the present claim. The first plan, it is rumored, consolidates the Jacksonville and Springfield districts; and the Champaign and Danville districts, while enlarging other districts by additions from those adjoining.

Another plan, not unanimously agreed upon, drops out the Decatur district, with consolidation of Champaign and Danville, while a third plan contemplates the elimination of Mattoon and Danville. The latter plan however is not unanimously agreed to. The reason Danville and Champaign districts are likely to be united is that in the two neighboring counties, Vermillion and Champaign, there are almost enough Methodist churches to make a complete district; and being traversed by railways, interurban, and hard roads, make it easy to travel by the superintendent.

Lifting the Line.

The proposition to lift the line between Illinois and Central Illinois Conference has received endorsement of the joint committees appointed by each conference. The reason, therefore, are that of efficiency, co-operation in educational matters, strength in leadership along reform movements, consolidation of conference endowment funds, a larger spirit and vision of its membership. This matter of conference consolidation has been undertaken in Ohio, in Kansas, in Missouri and enabling acts have been passed by the general conference permitting votes on the question, in the conferences concerned. It seems to be approved by the bishops, and is along lines of modern efficiency. Whether Illinois conference will memorialize general conference for such a permission is a question. There is strong opposition to it, at this time.

Delegates from each the Lay and Ministerial Conferences, are to be selected, making a delegation of eighteen to go to Saratoga, N. Y. next May to spend a month in legislation and review of the work of the past four years and plan for the future. It is likely to be a epochal conference. The question of union of the three bodies of Methodism will be up for action. The United Brethren and the Methodist Protestant are practically one, with 800,000 members, and with the Methodist church south, coming with them to a common ground of agreement, with the Methodist Episcopal church there is fair prospect for a united Methodism. It is easy to see why a large number of our laymen are already in the field seeking nomination.

Memorial Services.

The memorial services are usually held the first session of the annual conference. This year at Springfield, Rev. Dr. C. Galeener of Paris, will deliver the address. The list of those who have passed away is as follows: Henry T. Collins, aged 66; Horace Reed, aged 74; Wm. M. Poe, aged 70; G. J. Janson (the only one in pastoral relation), aged 40; D. E. May, aged 84; J. C. Keller, aged 77; N. E. Parsons, aged 66. The following wives of preachers of the conference have died: Mrs. W. A. McKinney, of Loraine; Mrs. J. L. B. Ellis of Shelbyville, and Mrs. Horace Reed of Decatur.

Appointments.

There is the usual buzzing among the churches and preachers concerning appointments. Some of these are well known and that gives rise to much speculation as to others.

The completed term of six years of Rev. F. B. Madden, district superintendent of Champaign, and Rev. H. C. Gibbs of like office over at Danville, will give an opening for at least one man, if not two, provided no change is made in the districts. Rev. W. L. Ewing of Hoopeson transfers to take charge of a church in Terre Haute, Ind. Rev. E. K. Towle of Clinton, who will locate his family in Jacksonville, while entering upon an evangelistic career, for which he is well fitted, leaves a fine charge for some worthy man. Rev. H. S. Alkire will either transfer or take certificate of location, hence Park Church, Bloomington, is open. At least three others have under consideration, on account of health, a change of location.

If the first plan proposed by the commission on reduction of the number of districts is adopted, Rev. Preston Wood will naturally be re-appointed to the Springfield district which will embrace Jacksonville. All else is speculative. There is a very general belief that the promise made by the conference, three years ago, that those who devoted themselves to the Educational Forward Movement should be returned to the pastoral service on the same grade as that left by them, will be fulfilled this year in giving Dr. J. C. Nate the Champaign-Danville district, if these two are consolidated. At Le Roy, Dr. Nate has had a happy and successful pastorate. Mrs. Nate is the corresponding secretary of the conference Woman's Foreign Missionary society, and would find Champaign, her former home, congenial for the work assigned her.

When the pulpit at Pittsfield was made vacant by the death of Brother Jansen, it was said that the district superintendent had thirty applications for the place, most of them, from members of the conference, seeking to better their condition. If they are still of that same mind, doubtless there will be opening for them, made to order, at the coming session.

HAS LIKING FOR GOLD FISH.

Wednesday the large swan at Nichols park decided to go on an exploring tour. It took flight and finally alighted in the large fountain in front of the main building at Jacksonville State hospital. Dr. Hill and others connected with the hospital were congratulating themselves on getting such a nice bird. The fountain is filled with gold fish and they soon discovered that Mr. Swan had an object in view. He was making a meal on the gold fish. Dr. Hill immediately called T. J. Brennan of the park board and notified him. Mr. Brennan sent Daniel Kelly to the hospital and the swan was captured and taken back to Nichols park.

FRIDAY WILL BE G. A. R. DAY.

Thursday has been erroneously announced as G. A. R. day at the chautauque grounds. The special attractions today will be three addresses to farmers by Bert Way, Ed. K. Slater and W. S. Corsa respectively; an address by Dr. John M. Dobson, dean of Rush Medical college and another by Miss Annie S. Hinrichsen on "County Dependents." Let all note the fact and not be misled by the erroneous announcement as Jacksonville will be especially glad to hear Miss Hinrichsen.

C. P. Henderson and wife of Litterberry were Wednesday visitors in the city.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Our Fore-Runners

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

This week, when the Old Settlers have had their meeting, and our minds are especially on early days, it would seem fitting to investigate the earliest human inhabitants of this region.

That they were Indians is well known. But this was a mis-nomer, for Columbus, seeking a new route to the East Indies, supposed he had found that region and called the people of this hemisphere Indians.

From the time of the great Genesee the name has stuck to the first known inhabitants of this land, and the Indians are the only people whose history in America is reasonably known before the coming of white people.

At the Old Settlers' meet a copy of Dr. John M. Peck's Gazetteer of Illinois was shown, and comment made by Mr. Cox or Mr. Meinel on the necessity for such a work.

Dr. Peck in the introduction to his book, printed here in 1834 by Robert Goudy, explains his view in his introduction. He says, in part:

"The utility and importance of an accurate Gazetteer of Illinois to every class of citizens within the state, and to all other persons who desire full and particular information, are too obvious to need proof. This work was undertaken by the author nearly two years since, at the solicitation of many of his fellow citizens, some of whom fill distinguished posts of honor in the state and nation. * * * In preparing this work with special reference to this call, the author has kept one point constantly in view. Accuracy of description, or a registry of facts and things as they actually exist in every part of the state, has been the paramount object."

That Dr. Peck did a service of great value for his day cannot be questioned.

He may well be quoted from at this point regarding some of the earliest human history known as to Illinois, and of the nomenclature of things here.

Under the head of "History," Dr. Peck said: "About 1670, the notion prevailed amongst the French that visited Canada, that a western passage to the Pacific ocean existed." He then goes on to speak of the early explorers, from Canada, and referring to an account given by Joliet, Peck says: "They found the natives friendly, and that a tradition existed among them of the residence of a 'Mon-e-to,' or spirit, near the mouth of the Missouri, which they could not pass. They turned their course up the Illinois, and were highly delighted with the placid stream, and the woodlands and prairies through which it flowed."

No doubt the "Mon-e-to" referred to was the Piasa Bird, whose picture was depicted on the rocks above Alton, where Piasa chautauqua is now held.

Dr. Peck says of the French explorers: "They were hospitably received and kindly treated by the Indians, a numerous nation of Indians who were destitute of the cruelty of savages. The word 'Illinois,' or 'Illini,' is said by Hennepin to signify a 'full grown man.' This nation appears to have originally possessed the Illinois country, and also a portion west of the Mississippi. The nation was made up of seven tribes: The Miami, Michigameas, Mascoutins, Kaskaskias, Kahokias, Peorias and Tamarweas."

Speaking of names, Peck said: "Many aboriginal names in the west were first written in French and after by persons of very inferior literary attainments. Some of these have already undergone changes. Thus we have Washash for Oubache; Washita for Ouchita, and for similar reasons we ought to write Wisconsin for Ouisconsin, Mackinaw for Michilimackinac, Meredosia for Marais d'Ogee."

It is understood that the name of the state was made from the Indian Illini and the Frenchois.

In Moses' History of Illinois there is a map of Illinois as it appeared to the first explorers in 1673-82, with location of Indian tribes."

This map shows the Illinois tribes beginning about Alton and taking in all the region west of the Illinois to the Mississippi, about as far north as Rock river. From there northward were the Kickapoos about to where Aurora now is, and the Pottawatomies had the region east to Lake Michigan. Right southwest of the great lake were the Weas. Our immediate region seemed to belong to the Illinois, while the Miamis were east of this and St. Louis, and the Piankashaws were further east in Illinois and toward the southeast of this state.

Moses says: "The Illinois had their possessions along the river of that name, beginning on the Desplaines and Kankakee, and claimed the country adjacent thereto and on the west of these streams to and even beyond the Mississippi, and as far south as its confluence with the Ohio. Their favorite and principal locations, however, were in the central and northern portions of what afterward became the state, where they had seventeen villages. The largest of these, their metropolis, was situated on the Illinois river in LaSalle county, one mile south of the celebrated rock subsequently fortified as Ft. St. Louis, and adjoining the present town of Utica. * * *

The chief village of the Peorias was on the lake of that name, while that of the Tamaros and Cahokias was below the mouth of the Illinois river and nearly opposite St. Louis."

The Illinois as a nation was broken up and disappeared as a nation about 1769, and "Starved Rock" is the monument to their sad fate, although some of them battled with the Kickapoos, Sacs and Foxes and Pottawatomies at Battle Rock, near Kaskaskia, in about the year 1800, where the Illinois were overwhelmingly defeated.

Moses says: "The Kickapoos and Mascoutins, nominally the same, were found by Alloues, in 1670, near the mouth of Fox river in Wisconsin. They subsequently worked their way, in opposition to the Piankashaws and Illinois, southward to the river of the latter name, thence south of the Kankakee and still later, fighting their way, to the Vermillion, Sangamon and Mackinaw rivers, where they remained for over a hundred years."

These Indians were fierce and good warriors; but after the war of 1812 ceased to annoy the whites. They were still hostile to the whites, and when they ceded their lands to the latter some of the Kickapoos went to Texas, even a foreign region. Some went to Mexico, and others to Kansas and then to the Indian territory where they were last reported as living.

Various treaties with the Indians were made, the last being with the Peorias, Weas and Kickapoos, in 1818, by which Indian claims to lands in the greater part of Illinois were extinguished," according to Judge Moses.

The Indians, then left, made trouble in 1814, when they "killed Mrs. Reason Reagan and six children on Wood river, Madison county; Henry Cox and son on Shoal creek; Mrs. Jesse (Jane Bradys) Bayles and Miss Bradys on Sugar creek," according to Gov. Reynolds in "My Own Times."

There does not appear to have been any notable fighting between the Indians and whites near here. But it is said that the Rangers or settlers in pursuit of the Indians who had committed the massacre at Wood river, overtook and killed an Indian on Indian creek, from which circumstance it is said the creek took its name.

The Indians are gone, but the memory of their deeds remains, and their history must be considered with that of America.

But Mrs. Sigourney appropriately wrote of them: "Ye say they all have passed away, That noble race and brave, That their light canoes have vanished From off the crested wave; That, 'mid the forests where they roamed, There rings no hunters' shout. But their name is on your waters, Ye may not wash it out."

A band is a rally, Fourth of July celebration, a conspiracy among a lot of men who own horns. One man cannot make anything like sufficient expression without a band. Let us all strive to live so reverberatingly that twenty-five men will get $3 a piece for putting on blue coats and caps and blasting a way through the atmosphere to the silent tomb for us.

Band music is very inspiring and is more attractive to a small boy than a public library, a high school, a woodpile, or anything but a fire. Any horn in the band when played by itself would make a crow feel proud of its voice, but when they are all tooled together the noise blends into a hurricane of harmony which makes a modest citizen proud to march in a secret society parade in pink silk pants and which causes hardened citizens to resolve to lead a better life and vote the ticket straight hereafter.

It is very difficult to become president of this country, and many discouragements are placed in the path of the man who desires to lay aside a few million dollars. But no citizen should despair so long as he can lay practice win a large confidence of a large horn and march inside of its coils on every public occasion, surrounded by a swarm of small boys who would give all they have to be in his place.

SENATORS VICTORIOUS IN FOURTEEN ROUNDS

WALTER JOHNSON COMES TO GALLIA'S ASSISTANCE.

Washington's Star Twirler Goes On Mound in Thirteenth and Starts Rally in Next Inning Which Gives Washington the Game.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Walter Johnson came to Gallia's assistance today, replaced the latter on the mound when he began to waver in the thirteenth inning and after holding the locals safe started a rally in the fourteenth inning which gave Washington a 7 to 4 victory over Chicago.

William P. Johns, a third baseman, purchased from the Columbus club of the American association reported to Manager Rowland and played a good game at third. ZEPHYR FLOUR

Just because it tastes like Mother's! That's why ZEPHYR FLOUR bread is the favorite of most men.

All that smacking deliciousness of old fashioned bread can be obtained from the full-flavored richness of ZEPHYR FLOUR. Not a bit of the twangy sweetness of its sun-ripened wheat is lost in the milling of ZEPHYR—the chemist sees to that.

Searching tests made hourly by chemist and baker insure uniformity which guarantees identical baking results from every sack. Using ZEPHYR means good bread at every baking. We selected because of its finer flavor and unfailing satisfaction. You'll choose it, too, for the same reason, after you have tried it just once.

The seaside breezes are very much inclined to be chilly, and the boy who sojourns by the shore will need a warm coat for his protection. Chinchilla recommends itself. It is soft and woolly, and withal, in the better qualities, it is not burdensome. The coat shown here is of dark blue chinchilla with sailor collar trimmed with red silk braid.

NOT A MATRIMONIAL BUREAU

Housewives' League of New York City Obligated to Announce Neutrality.

Well trained wives who can cook and keep house and who know more about sanitary conditions than "mother" ever dreamed of knowing are among the supplies that are being demanded of the National Housewives' league at its headquarters in West Forty-fifth street, New York city.

Two men called at the headquarters of the league within the last two weeks, and each of them wanted a wife. One of them was a widower with several children and no one to look out for them, and the other was one of the lonely young men of New York. He had no friends in the city, few acquaintances, and he felt that if he could only get a nice wife with domestic tastes, one who could manage the income of a rising young man, he would be happy.

Where can any one go to find a good, sensible wife if not to a place like the league? That was what the young man thought. New York has all the modern conveniences and more than enough modern amusements, but where can one go to find a heart and help-meat? he asked.

That is what a good many young men—and young women, too—who make their homes in New York are asking, and the league would like to help them out, but that is where it has to draw the line. No matrimonial aspirants need apply, though the league appreciates their need.

"That men thinking of marrying should come to a place like the Housewives' league," said Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the league, "emphasizes the fact that one of the greatest needs of the present time is efficiency in the housewife. Women should be trained to spend the income of the family as the men are trained to produce it. Men are looking for real partners in the business of home making. Hitherto it has been a question of the husband supporting the wife and of the wife being supported. The majority of women are willing to do their share in maintaining, but they are not properly trained. This makes young men with moderate incomes hesitate before they even think of marriage."

"When the league started three years ago we were asked if we would do anything about the servant problem, and we said no. We intended to first train the mistress. Now we have come to the place where the mistress is on the way to obtain proper training, and we are extending our work, but not on the basis of 'mistress and maid,' but of 'employer and employee.' Statistics speak of the 'employment problem' and the 'domestic problem' as two separate and different subjects."

"When they are considered as one and the same thing then people will begin to think of hours and wages. I have very little use for the woman who goes to Albany to advocate the eight hour law for men and then comes home and works her own maid twenty-four hours a day."

Dolly Varden Fashions.

Dolly Varden styles, which have not been seen for many seasons, appear with these styles of former days and are considered as attractive as they ever were. In silks they are particularly charming and are becoming very popular. The reason given for the return of these old fashioned styles is the increased use of American made goods.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

[San Francisco—The distribution of a million dollar estate has been halted until today, pending the investigation of the claim of Mrs. Louise Thompson of Los Angeles.

That she is the daughter of the late John M. Keith, well known California oil man. Her story reads like the pages of fiction. More than thirty years ago, according to Mrs. Thompson, she journeyed to Alaska.

With Keith, who, she claims, was her father. They were shipwrecked, she declares, and while both were rescued, each thought the other had perished. Up to the time of the death of Keith, a year ago last April, the woman asserts, her father still believed that his daughter had gone to her death in the shipwreck.

Two weeks ago the will of Keith came up for probate, but postponement was made until today, in order that the lawyers might investigate the unusual story. Keith has left $50,000 to Mrs. Edith Spreckles, $50,000 to an automobile to Inez F. Keeney Chamberlain, and the residue of his fortune is left to his relatives, many of whom live in Virginia, North Carolina and Alabama.

Asbury Park, N. J.—Miss Mildred Morgan, an Indianapolis beauty, will be queen of the 25th annual carnival to be held here on Wednesday. Miss Morgan is 21 years old, and a handsome brunette. As Queen Titania she will be crowned with due pomp and ceremony, and her loyal subjects of the summer colony will utter the proverbial loud acclaim.

Her train will be a group of the prettiest girls of the colony. A baby parade will be one of the events of the carnival.

New Orleans, La.—Carrie Simms, America's leading tragedienne in real life, was recently rescued here from her seventeenth attempt to kill herself. This time she swallowed poison, but was detected and the doctors saved her. Carrie has jumped the Mississippi river, has hurled herself before a moving train, jumped before auto and street cars, swallowed acids, laudanum, kerosene oil, choleraform and other killers. On every occasion something happened to thwart her designs to end her life. Carrie is no movie actress. She is just tired of life, and takes to suicide as regularly as her spirits drop.

New York—Two hundred and three former members of the city's teaching force may lose their pensions. Many of these are dependent on their pensions for their living. It has been announced that every teacher's pension granted since Sept. 1, 1913, has been illegal. Doubt is also cast on the legality of the entire 684 pensions allowed since 1900. It is claimed that the number of pensioners has increased too rapidly; that "vicious methods of peddling the pension rolls" have been used. It is pointed out that a number of women who retired on pensions have married. Many of these retired "for disability." The claim is now made that either they should not have been retired, or New York needs a Eugenic law.

San Francisco—For the second time in her life, Mrs. Giuseppe Fulloni, formerly Miss M. M. McKim of San Francisco, has lost her citizenship. Her husband, who is a reservist in the Italian army, is on his way to Italy, and therefore both he and his wife forfeit their citizenship rights when she married, but regained them when her husband became naturalized and she has been a voter since the woman suffrage law was adopted.

London—It is quite the usual thing for soldiers to fall in love with their nurses who care for them in the war hospitals. But it is altogether unique that a British Tommy should tell a former queen that he loves her. According to a hospital story now going the rounds, Queen Amelle of Portugal, who is a full fledged doctor of medicine and holder of a degree, and has been giving her services to the third London general hospital at Wandsworth, has been told by a war-sick and love-sick soldier that he loved her. Although she is old enough to be the soldier's mother, for she is the mother of the former King Manuel, she was just a beautiful nurse to the wounded Tommy. Her identity was kept secret for many months, during which she brought joy and comfort to the soldiers, working eight hours a day on the staff of a physician.

DAVIS' SWITCH.

In last week's news, in speaking of J. H. Devor's wheat, it should have said it made 41 bushels to the acre instead of 37. Mr. William Weidling of the Buckhorn had one field of wheat that turned 45 bushels to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Murrayville spent Sunday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harding.

Mrs. A. C. Reid and daughter, Florence, spent Tuesday the 17th with Mrs. Leach south of the city.

Mrs. Andrew Bacon and daughter, Mrs. Dan Moy were guests one day last week at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnhart.

Mrs. Irvin Sheppard has gone to California to visit her two sons who live there. She will also attend the World's Fair while there. Mr. Sheppard accompanied her to Kansas City.

Hurbert Colton who has come to his home, in Woodson, to spend a few weeks with his parents and friends, gave a fine talk at the Presbyterian Sunday School in Woodson on last Sunday.

Miss Catherine Cain has returned from a two weeks visit with friends in Alton. While there she went on several boat excursions, and reports having a fine time.

The Practical Bible Class met at the pleasant home of Mrs. Jack Steinmetz in Woodson on last Thursday afternoon. Short readings were given. After the business meeting it was decided to hold a market in Jacksonville, Saturday, September the 4th. There will be a Parcel Post sale also at the same time. Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. Baxtor, Mrs. John Hoagland, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Nicol, Mrs. Sorrells and Mrs. Leonard McCain, a former member of the class.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Winter is quite sick.

Ed Grimmell of Buckhorn neighborhood was transacting business in Girard the past week.

Mrs. Baston and Elmer Grinnett and wife from Girard spent the week end with their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Grinnett in Buckhorn.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL.

A SMALL KIT CHEN ECONOMY.

Bacon is an extravagant article in the list of cooking materials because of its increased price and the fact that often twice as much as is needed is used for garnishing other foods.

This delectable meat will probably never be low priced again, yet it will always be a great addition to the menu, so that to know the best ways for using it without waste is a necessity if one is to cook well.

The drippings from bacon are the best sort of shortening for cookies and every day pastry, therefore every bit of the fat that renders out in cooking should be strained and saved for such uses.

The first cost of the meat very much for the shortening bill has soared with the price of pork.

All left-over bacon makes excellent seasoning for meat loaves and may be nicely browned for garnishing by being dipped into egg batter and then into fine crumbs and placed in a hot oven, on a bacon rack, until golden brown.

If you have never broiled bacon on a rack you have a culinary treat in store; for even inferior bacon becomes fine tasting when broiled so and best bacon delicious. Any wire broiler or oven rack may be used; the slices are spread out, just touching, not covering, one another, on it and placed over a dripping pan in a hot oven. Sometimes bacon is as salty as salt can make it and requires soaking, after it is sliced, in hot water; after such treatment the salt is not too apparent.

The best of sausage can be made at home with the following ingredients: One pound of veal, one pound of fresh pork, one cup of bacon chopped and one cup of cracker crumbs. Grind the veal and pork fine, add crumbs and bacon, seasoning of pepper and sage with very little salt, as the bacon supplies this. Grind the mixture again and shape into cakes and fry. Cold meat of any sort may be used in place of the veal.

Questions and Answers.
"Kindly tell me if paraffin may be used more than once. I have a quantity from tops of last season's jellies and it looks like fresh."

Reply—Yes. Melt the wax in hot water and when it is cold you can lift it out a solid cake and use it again.

"Can you supply me with a recipe for elderberry vinegar? I have searched everywhere for this, but so far in vain.—Hope".

Reply—I am glad to end your search, for I find the direction in "Cook's Encyclopedia", published in 1832 by a Boston housekeeper. The process seems very simple: "Choose the berries as soon as the flower petals fall and half fill a jar with them, fill up with vinegar and cork tight. Stand jar in sun for twenty days, then strain off the liquor, squeeze the flowers into it and filter. Keep the vinegar closely stoppered. Fine for all greens."

Tomorrow—All Kinds of Waste Baskets.

You Would Like to Have That Steak Cooked Just Right? Indeed You Would Think how difficult it is for the cook to perform such a feat after having wrestled with the coal pail dirt spot, smoke, and uncontrollable fire and an unsightly kitchen range.

The preparation of a perfectly delicious steak or any other cooked, baked, boiled or broiled article of food, on the new gas range is another trick entirely. The fire is just right, just where you want it and when you want it, and perfectly controllable and not accompanied with any of the above objectionable features.

You Will Want to Save On Your Coal Bills This Winter

No doubt you will. Coal is going to be higher this winter than ever before. The inevitable coal strike should be prepared for now. You can operate a gas range for one-half the amount that will be necessary to buy coal for a coal range at even the present price of coal and the cost of a gas range is a great deal less than that of a coal range

You Have Decided to Buy a Gas Stove if You Can Find a Good One at a Reasonable Price

That is just what I am getting at. For three days this week—THURSDAY, FRIDAY and Saturday—we will make prices on Gas Stoves that will startle you

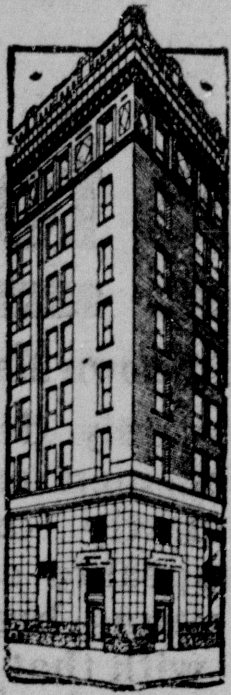

We have our show room full of a variety of styles and makes and will be glad to quote rock bottom prices during these three days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Come in and see us.

Gash in beginning. "But their value is becoming daily more apparent. They are the best investment a man can make and their worth is easily demonstrated. Of course they must be kept up and looked after properly. If a crack comes it should be filled so as not to permit any substance to get down in between the parts. I have made a careful investigation where hard roads have been constructed and everywhere the same favorable verdict is heard."

"I was once conversing with a man living eight miles from Detroit. He said he was a market gardener and formerly used two horses and a large wagon to take a load of produce to the city and it required a whole day. Now he uses one horse, makes the round trip in half a day and has his afternoon for other vocations. The most valuable thing in life is time and how it is saved by good roads. Of course we are not going to get them simply by willing to have them, but we must work for them. There is gold in the hills but it takes work to get out the ore, send it to the smelters and have it extracted."

"There is wealth in the soil but it takes work to plant and reap the crops and they cannot be gotten without. There is coal in the bowels of the earth but it takes a miner to get it out and so if we would have the benefits of hard roads we must work for them."

Hard Road Benefits.
"If we stop to make a few calculations we shall quickly see what benefits may be derived from hard roads. In a period of twenty years for instance, one horse is saved. Then there is the feed for twenty years which will amount to a large sum; the harness will wear out three times and will have to be replaced."

"Consider the 130,000 automobiles now in the state and the greater number which will be here from year to year. A car used on smooth roads will last twice as long as one bumped over the clods of the ordinary rough country road and think of the millions involved. But some say they are not in favor of spending money for automobile owners. Don't spite yourself to hurt some other person, is my advice."

"Regard the price of land. How much more a farm is worth when by a hard road than when alongside a mudhole!"
"Another very important factor is the keeping of the young people on the farm. They can go ten miles to school and board at home and this is a matter of the greatest importance. In one county I saw a schoolhouse in the country and about it were 27 vehicles and it looked good. Build a little good road each year. The government will have a hand in this too as well as to build roads in the island possessions, the Panama canal and the Alaska railroad."

Many Benefits from Good Roads.
The next speaker was Hon. Homer Tice, author of the well known Tice good roads law. He said in part:

"If we take into account all the roads in the state of Illinois it makes an interesting subject. There are 95,000 miles of roads in the state and not more than ten per cent are improved properly. I used to be opposed to hard roads but have changed my mind after careful investigation. We cannot make good dirt roads without careful draining. That will cost $377.0 a mile for six-inch tile but it is the best investment that can be made for the farm. A hundred volumes of water will make 109 volumes when frozen, so you see what kind of roads we must have if we fail to care for them and keep them dry. It is estimated that 27,000 tons of water fall on a mile of ordinary road in a year. A good dirt road must first be well drained graded up, smoothed off and rounded on top and then it will be ready for use. The man who devised the road scraper deserves to be canonized, for by its frequent and intelligent use any amount of bad roads are made good. Next thing to the draining is the oiling of the roads and it is of great value. When a road is properly graded up, oiled intelligently and smoothed off it is ready for use and the best than can be made with dirt."

"It should be the duty of every county officials to see how best the roads in his care may be improved and kept good. At first I was opposed to hard roads but after studying conditions here and in Europe I have made every effort to get the best information possible and have come to the conclusion that hard roads of macadam, concrete or brick are a paying investment. The Tice law intends to improve our public highways and while perfection is not claimed for it still it is as good as the experience we had at the time could make it. The financial argument for good roads is by no means the greatest. You may smile at this but I am firm in my opinion. A nation can never prosper without education and true religion. Give people good roads and they will go to church and send their children to school far more regularly than if the roads were bad. The contrast between the illiterates and non-religious in places where the roads are good and where they are not is simply marvelous. It may not be wholly due to good roads but that has much to do with it. I have made comparisons in different groups of states arranged according to their illiteracy and have found the one cause everywhere where people do not patronize school and church. Education and christianity are the corner stones on which our structure for life must be built."

Will Live in Denver.
Miss Alvina Bosse and Miss Augusta Bosse will leave the city today on their way to Colorado. They will make a stop of a week at Bluffs to visit home folks and will visit relatives in Nebraska for a short time also, before proceeding to Denver, where they will make their home.

Mr. Gash on Hard Roads.
"Hard roads are not yet fully understood and appreciated," said Mr.

Jacksonville day, with a program of especially wide appeal, will rank among the best in the chautauqua season. If ability and reputation of the speakers and entertainers be taken as a criterion. Among magicians, Walden holds high place. Dr. John M. Dodson, dean of Rush Medical college, has embodied vital fact and interesting allusion in his lecture, "Conservation of Child Life and Human Efficiency." For the farmers three lectures will be given today in the special tent.

Local features of the day include Jeffries' band, Mrs. Grace Wood Jess, a former resident of the city, and Miss Annie Hinrichsen, inspector of institutions for the state charities commission. Miss Hinrichsen will speak on "County Dependents," illustrating her talk with fact and anecdote gathered in the course of inspection tours. Mrs. Jess' afternoon program is made up largely of children's songs and will include "The Camel's Hump," Kipling-German; "Aunt Sally," Horace Clark; "The Busy Child," Grace Wassels; Del Rigo's shadow march and "Old Folks at Home." Tonight she will sing the aria from "Sampson and Delilah," "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "Ich Liege Dich," by Grieg, and "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," by Tate.

Announcements of the scores of winners in the baby contest will be made this afternoon as soon as the judges have finished their work. Seventy girl babies were judged yesterday and a large number of boys will be examined today. Mothers are urged to bring sufficient wraps for the children and are reminded that the first to come will be given first attention. Nine physicians and fifteen nurses were busy yesterday, from 1 to 3 o'clock, the time schedule which will be followed this afternoon.

The Short family of Murrayville have been added to the chautauqua program and will appear Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Fair play for farmers will be among the subjects treated by Senator Kenyon Friday.

A. D. Gash, president of the Illinois State Highway commission, was the principal speaker yesterday afternoon. In excellent language he urged the cause of the hard road before one of the largest audiences yet in attendance at the chautauqua.

Hon. Homer J. Tice, of Greenville, spoke briefly on legal aspects of the good roads question.

Ash Davis, Master Cartoonist. Eighteen years on the platform have given Ash Davis a skillful hand with the cartoonist's pencil and his mastery of the art was evident from the first few strokes on the screen. Mr. Davis is a resident of Des Moines, Iowa, and was connected with the Register and Leader before going on the lyceum platform. He has given twenty-one hundred entertainments and in his platform work is very rapid and immeasurably entertaining.

"Pictured Fun Quickly Done" was the theme of Mr. Davis' entertainment and the lighter foibles of human nature were considered first. For the cigarette smoker there was admonition that can hardly be forgotten and for the woman of extreme style there was ridicule, made mild with humor. Mr. Davis' sunset sketch, the last on the program, told the audience good night in a manner surprising and novel.

Jeffries' band began the evening program promptly at 7 o'clock. Their list of pieces was well selected and especially noteworthy was the xylophone solo by Mr. Wilson of Springfield, "The American Patrol." "Tipperry" with vocal accompaniment by Mr. Chamberlain, brought hearty applause from the audience.

All were pleased with the work of the Y. M. C. A. gymnastic drill team. Signal and double work on the horizontal bars made up most of the quarter hour program. The team consisted of H. A. Brewer, physical director; Dale Boxell, Walton Boxell and Harry Walker.

The Chicago male quartet gave good satisfaction both morning and evening. The four young men, Frank Bernard, Elias A. Bridin, Frank H. Collins and W. O. Smith, appeared just before the illustrated lecture by Mr. Davis, and with every selection seemed to captivate their hearers.

THE BUICK CAR WON SWEEPSTAKES PRIZE

A Performance Usual With That First Class Machine on All Occasions.

When the parade was going by yesterday a great many said they would have no trouble in deciding which car would take the sweepstakes prize and it would be the Buick. It was indeed a marvelous piece of work and showed W. G. Benson to be a master of his art. The design was indeed novel and required no small amount of skill in its construction and adornment. Miss Zelda Benson looked charming indeed seated in the rear holding the pretty ribbons and seemingly guiding the car while in reality William Ricks was at the wheel and though out of sight he had much to do with the management of the beautiful turnout. Mr. Benson must have considered long in making the design and have worked very hard in the construction and his success was commensurate with his effort. It took a Buick to lead and the ease with which the driver managed it with such small opportunity to see what he was doing shows what a superior car he was handling.

LAST SAILING OF THE PACIFIC MAIL LINE

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—When the steamer Mongolian sails from this port today, the line will have completed its schedule of sailings from San Francisco, in pursuance of its plan announced some time ago of disposing of its fleet and other property, because of the claim that the famous line cannot compete with rival Pacific lines under the workings of the new Seaman's Law, the Pacific mail is going out of business, after a long career of traffic with the Orient.

The most notable of the Mongolian's passengers on its final trip is George W. Guthrie, U. S. Ambassador to Japan, who has been resting at his home in Pennsylvania. Ambassador Guthrie is returning to his post at Tokio, and is accompanied by Mrs. Guthrie and a party of friends.

The steamship Mongolian, which sails today, has been sold to the Atlantic Transport Co., of West Virginia, together with the liners Manchuria, Korea, Siberia and China. These Pacific Mail liners will be used in Atlantic ocean traffic between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and European ports. Registry will not be changed at once, if at all, is the report from New York.

The sale of the five liners takes from the Trans-Pacific passenger trade to Asiatic ports all vessels flying the American flag, except the liner Minnesota of the Great Northern S. S. Co., which is carrying record cargoes to Vladivostok, in Eastern Russia, and to Japan and China. There remain in the passenger service American steamers running to the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines, Australia and other ports.

R. day; Friday is the time for the old soldiers.

ROOSEVELT ADDRESSES THROG AT PLATTSBURGH MILITARY CAMP

Censures Administration For Its Attitude in the European Situation.

Plattsburgh, N. Y., Aug. 25.—"Don't applaud unless you feel a burning sense of shame because the United States has not stood up for Belgium."

Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, snapped out these words tonight before a crowd at the military instruction camp during a speech in which he censured the administration for its attitude in the European situation and strongly urged preparedness for war. As he paused after uttering the sentence his audience, consisting of about 1,200 members of the camp and more than 2,000 other persons, burst into wild and prolonged applause.

The surest way for a nation to invite disaster is to be rich, aggressive and unarmed," the former president said at another time, in speaking of preparedness. Colonel Roosevelt was introduced by Major General Leonard Wood.

"No man is fitted," he asserted at one time during the course of his speech, "to be the citizen of a free country unless he is willing to defend that country."

Loud applause followed.

GIANTS SELL "RUBE" MARQUARD TO TORONTO INTERNATIONAL CLUB

New York is to Get Pitcher Herbert From the Canadian Team, Under the Terms of the Transaction.

New York, Aug. 25.—Richard P. (Rube) Marquard left-handed pitcher, was sold today by the New York Nationals to the Toronto club of the International League. Under the terms of the transaction the Giants are to get Pitcher Herbert from the Canadian team. It is understood that all major league clubs waived claims to Marquard because of their unwillingness to pay the high salary which his contract calls for. This salary undoubtedly will be paid off by the two clubs. Marquard expressed his unwillingness to join the Toronto club and wants his unconditional release.

Marquard came to New York in 1908 when $11,000 was paid to the Indianapolis club for him. He did not play much until 1911 when he began to develop and the next year made a record by pitching nineteen straight victories. Last season he defeated Pittsburgh in twenty-one innings, the longest game ever played in the National League.

The New York Nationals also announced the purchase of Catcher Robert Schang from the Pittsburgh Nationals for the waiver price.

He is a brother of Walter Schang, the catcher of the Philadelphia Americans.
